

“Follow The Leader”

Discussion Guide

TEXT: Mark 8:34-38

OPEN:

1. If you could “gain the whole world”, where would you live?

DIG:

1. What title did Jesus twice use for Himself? What is the significance of this title? What four things does He prophesy about the Son of Man? According to Jesus, what kind of Messiah is He?
2. Why does Peter react so strongly to Jesus’ teaching? Why does Jesus call Peter “Satan”? How is Peter like the blind beggar Jesus healed (8:22-26)?
3. What is the essential difference between “the things of God and the things of man”?
4. Who does Jesus now call to listen to His teaching? Why? What three things are involved in following Jesus? What is the “self” that must be denied? What are the consequences of denying Jesus instead?
5. How does the whole tenor of the gospel shift at this point?

APPLICATION:

1. When have you felt a need to advise God?
2. In which groups do you tend to be most ashamed of Jesus words?
3. What “things of men”, as reflected in your budget and time priorities, might tempt you? What priority has the highest “exchange” value (see vs37) for you?

“Follow The Leader”

Discussion Guide

TEXT: Mark 8:34-38

OPEN:

1. If you could “gain the whole world”, where would you live?

DIG:

1. What title did Jesus twice use for Himself? What is the significance of this title? What four things does He prophesy about the Son of Man? According to Jesus, what kind of Messiah is He?
2. Why does Peter react so strongly to Jesus’ teaching? Why does Jesus call Peter “Satan”? How is Peter like the blind beggar Jesus healed (8:22-26)?
3. What is the essential difference between “the things of God and the things of man”?
4. Who does Jesus now call to listen to His teaching? Why? What three things are involved in following Jesus? What is the “self” that must be denied? What are the consequences of denying Jesus instead?
5. How does the whole tenor of the gospel shift at this point?

APPLICATION:

1. When have you felt a need to advise God?
2. In which groups do you tend to be most ashamed of Jesus words?
3. What “things of men”, as reflected in your budget and time priorities, might tempt you? What priority has the highest “exchange” value (see vs37) for you?