

The Functions and Qualities of Elders, (Part 3) Discussion Guide

Text: I Timothy 3:1:7

Open:

1. What would the average evening meal for a family look like if preschoolers got to choose the menu? Why & how does age & maturity change those decisions?

Dig:

1. Why do you think God makes the home the main proving ground for a man's ability to serve God's people as a shepherd? How are the church and home similar?
2. In what ways would a greedy man or one who loves money be a poor leader of God's people? What traits or practices do you look for that make it evident someone is NOT a "lover of money"?
3. What warning does God give about putting a person who is not mature in the role of pastor or bishop, (v.6)? What are some other qualities mentioned in our text that a new convert or simply someone who has not matured, almost certainly lack?
4. Why is it so important that a prospective elder or anyone who currently serves as an elder have a good reputation among "outsiders"?
5. What qualities should we expect to see in the wife of a leader, (v.11)?

The Functions and Qualities of Elders, (Part 3) Discussion Guide

Text: I Timothy 3:1:7

Open:

1. What would the average evening meal for a family look like if preschoolers got to choose the menu? Why & how does age & maturity change those decisions?

Dig:

1. Why do you think God makes the home the main proving ground for a man's ability to serve God's people as a shepherd? How are the church and home similar?
2. In what ways would a greedy man or one who loves money be a poor leader of God's people? What traits or practices do you look for that make it evident someone is NOT a "lover of money"?
3. What warning does God give about putting a person who is not mature in the role of pastor or bishop, (v.6)? What are some other qualities mentioned in our text that a new convert or simply someone who has not matured, almost certainly lack?
4. Why is it so important that a prospective elder or anyone who currently serves as an elder have a good reputation among "outsiders"?
5. What qualities should we expect to see in the wife of a leader, (v.11)?